

SEPTEMBER 14-15-16, 2016

CASA DELLA MEMORIA

MILANO / VIA FEDERICO CONFALONIERI 14 / MM5 ISOLA

INSMLI

ISTITUTO NAZIONALE
PER LA STORIA
DEL MOVIMENTO
DI LIBERAZIONE
IN ITALIA

With the contribution of

Struttura di Missione
per gli anniversari di interesse nazionale

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

THE ATLAS OF NAZI AND FASCIST MASSACRES IN ITALY, 1943-1945

Day 1 - September 14, 3pm

Greetings and conference opening

Carlo Smuraglia (President of the National Association of Italian Partisans -ANPI), Marcello Flores (Scientific Director of the National Institute for the History of the Liberation Movement in Italy - INSMLI), Francesco Puccio (Minister Plenipotentiary, DG for the European Union, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Rome), Jutta Wolke (Consul General of the German Federal Republic, Milan)

Session 1. The Atlas of massacres: general picture and possible interpretations

Chair: Wolfgang Schieder, President for Germany of the Italian-German joint historical commission

16.00
Paolo Pezzino, Project scientific director of "The atlas of Nazi and fascist massacres in Italy, 1943-1945",
The project of the Nazi and fascist massacres in Italy: origin, investigation, outcome and use

16.45
Chiara Dogliotti, University of Pisa
The slaughtering policy: phases and areas

17.45-19.30
Discussants: Lutz Klinkhammer, German Historic Institute, Rome; Sönke Neitzel, University of Potsdam; Richard Overly, University of Exeter

Day 2 - September 15, 9am

Session 2. War and violence cultures: the slaughtering

Chair: Mariano Gabriele, President for Italy of the Italian-German joint historical commission

9.15-10.15
Carlo Gentile, University of Köln
The Germans and the war against civilians

Toni Rovatti, University of Bologna
The Fascists and the Civil war

10.30-12.00
Christian Ingrao, History of Present Time Institute, IHTP-CNRS, Paris
War culture, Memory, Utopia and Violence. The case of the German SD

Alan Kramer, University of Dublin
The dynamics of warfare: German 'atrocities' in the wars of the 20th century

Gabriella Gribaudo, University Frederick II, Naples
The violence of liberators: bombings and wartime sexual violence

Debate

Day 2 - September 15, 3pm

Session 3. Occupation, resistance, counter-guerrilla

Chair: Santo Peli, University of Padua

15.00-16.30
Gianluca Fulvetti, University of Pisa
Military occupation and violence against civilians. A comparative approach.

Luca Baldissara, University of Pisa
Guerrilla strategies and repressive measures

Ben H. Sheperd, Caledonian University, Glasgow
German security policy across occupied Europe: an overview

16.45-17.45
Guido Samarani, University of Ca' Foscari, Venice
Systems of occupation, resistance and violence against civilians in East Asia

Stefano Petrunger, Institut für Ost- und Südosteuropaforschung, Regensburg
A space of war, a mixing of violence: the Balkans

17.45-19.30
Discussion

Day 3 - September 16, 9am

Session 4. Law and politics, Trials and memories

Chair: Pier Paolo Rivello, Military Chief Prosecutor at the Court of Cassation

9.00-10.30
Andrej Umansky, University of Köln
Germany

Giovanni Focardi, University of Padua
Trials for all seasons. Transitional justice and politics in Italy.

Pieter Lagrou, Free University of Brussels
The Great War as precedent. The posterity of the attempts to defeat impunity and curtail the recourse to the argument of Kriegsnötwendigkeit after 1918

10.45-12.45
Debate with contributions by: Thomas Will, Central Office of the State Justice Administration for the Investigation of National Socialist Crimes, Ludwigsburg; Marco
De Paolis, Military Prosecutor, Rome; Emanuela Fronza, University of Bologna; Pierpaolo Portinaro, University of Turin

